TAFE NSW - Illawarra Institute, has the statutory educational Hard Copy licence. The following provisions apply for each student annually

What you can copy

Books and other separately published works
(a) 10% of the number of pages; or
(b) one chapter of that edition.

Periodical publications
(a) all or part of an article; or
(b) more than one article if the articles relate to the same subject matter from any issue of a periodical publication.

Anthologies
The whole or part of a literary or dramatic work in a published anthology of works if that work comprises not more than 15 pages of that anthology.

Artistic works
(a) with text which explains or illustrates the artwork; or
(b) alone, if not available to purchase separately.

Works not separately published
Whole work if not separately published (except articles in periodical publications).

Unavailable works
All of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work (other than an article in a periodical publication) if you can determine by reasonable investigation that the work is
(a) not available within a reasonable period of time; or
(b) not available at an ordinary commercial price.

More information?
Copyright Agency Limited Level 19 157 Liverpool Street Sydney NSW 2000
Tel: 02 9394 7600 Fax: 02 9394 7601 Email: licence@copyright.com.au Website: www.copyright.com.au