On Display: ANZAC Day

To commemorate ANZAC Day, 25th April, the Library is currently displaying information and resources focusing on ANZAC involvement in the First and Second World Wars.

The theme of ANZAC Day this year is the Burma-Thailand Railway. 70 years ago this month, some of the 10,000 Australian prisoners of war began constructing the infamous Hellfire Pass.

There is a wide range of books, DVDs and resource kits on the ANZAC heritage. These include in-depth analyses of the Gallipoli campaign, studies of how the legacy endures, and a fascinating collection of stories, poems and pictures produced at Gallipoli by the men themselves.

STOP PRESS!

Come to the Library on Thursday 23 May from 10am to 11.30am for Australia’s Biggest Morning Tea. Catered for by Tourism & Hospitality and the Library staff at Moss Vale Campus, supported by ITSA, the Illawarra TAFE Student Association. Gold coin donation. All money raised goes to the Cancer Council.
