TAFE Illawarra’s Tourism and Hospitality section will host a Biggest Morning Tea at Destiny’s Training Restaurant on Monday 28 May 2012 to raise money for the Cancer Council.

According to Rebecca Shelton, Teacher of Events Management the students studying Certificate III in Events are coordinating and organising this event.

“The students have worked very hard to source sponsorship and donations from local business and organisations to ensure the event is a great success,” she said.

“The students have arranged entertainment comprising of local musicians, Koori dancers, a pamper corner, a live auction as well as numerous silent auctions, raffles and lots of scrumptious morning tea delicacies,” she added.

“By taking part in the Biggest Morning Tea participants will be able to honour those who have successfully fought cancer and remember those who have lost the battle,” she said.

“Any contributions to our event will ensure that ground-breaking research, prevention and support services for cancer patients and their families can be continued and funded,” she said.
