National Skills Week 26 August—1 September 2013
Hands and Minds—the DNA of Skills and Trades

National Skills Week, now in its third year, again set out to bring to life the positive messages, highlighting the talents, the skills, the career pathways and the value of apprentices and trainees across Australia to the wider public and employees. The week was dedicated to raising the status of practical and vocational learning.

Moruya TAFE took the opportunity to showcase our students’ talents and skills by:

The Hospitality students put on an afternoon tea to High School Students in the area

The Moruya TAFE Horticulture went all out and showcased their skills with their very own backyard blitz project.

Started out like this, then they came in to measure it up and design the project. Students then came in to do the hard work.

And Now Look!

Hi my name is Heidi Jay. I am about to finish year 12 at Moruya High. I am doing Business Studies as a TVET course. I am doing work placement for this course in the TAFE Library. I chose to do it here because I was given options of where I wanted to go after my first places weren't fitting in with my timetable and this sounded like the best possible place for me. I wouldn't have to make a list of what I could do, I liked the sound of the things I could do and it opens up heaps of opportunities. I am in Special Olympics. I do swimming, ten pin bowling which I have been selected to compete in the Asia Pacific Games for and basketball. I am a member of Special Nippers. I just joined Workability. I like to sing, act and read.

One of TAFE’s much loved students, Bhitsamai – better known as Bee is moving to Nowra. Bee has been studying at TAFE since 2006 and has studied many different courses. She has been a keen student in Language, Literacy & Numeracy and over the past five years Bee’s determination has helped her complete many courses, including Children’s Services, Aged Care and Hairdressing. There are several reasons why Bee has kept up with her studies. Learning at TAFE has helped her develop her English, gain greater general knowledge and keep active.

So if you are thinking of following in her footsteps, Bee recommends TAFE as a great way to improve your communication ability, gain confidence and learn new skills.

“Beat the Blues”

Morning Tea proudly supporting beyondblue

‘Beat the Blues’ Morning Tea event organised by the TVET events in September students raised $374.00 for beyondblue.

We (Debbie and Students) would like to thank the supporting students and staff who helped us make the $374.00 possible. The students planned different fundraising activities, morning tea with freshly made cakes and slices prepared by Nick Jameson (Commercial Cookery Teacher).

Chances are you know someone who is suffering from depression, anxiety or other related disorders. The Library and Campus Counsellor has several resources donated by beyondblue to support you, your family and friends.
